

CCD Board Meeting – 2 Nov, 2025

Attendees

- Philip (Facilitator)
 - Myra (Secretary)
 - Valerie Allendorf
 - Darlene Underwood
 - Richard House
 - Charles (Co-Facilitator)
 - Larry Lankford (Treasurer)
 - Audrey Eyman
 - Bonnie Carpenter
 - Deven Corzine
-

Key Topics & Detailed Summaries

1. Introductions & Volunteer Roles

Each attendee shared:

- Their dance history
- A surprising personal fact
- Their current volunteer roles within CCD

Roles included:

- Scheduling (Bonnie, Deven, Myra)
 - Sound (Larry)
 - Finance (Larry, Charles, Darlene, Richard)
 - Social outreach (Bonnie)
 - Hospitality (Deven, Bonnie)
 - Cleanup (Philip, Audrey)
 - Event planning (Audrey, Valerie)
 - Board retreat coordination (Audrey)
 - Website (Deven)
 - PigTown coordination (multiple members)
-

2. Review of October Meeting Minutes

- Minutes were reviewed and accepted.
 - Correction: “Cori” was misspelled in multiple places.
 - DJ Contra event scheduled for Nov 8 was canceled due to organizer availability.
 - Suggestion to form a DJ Contra workgroup for future planning.
-

3. Treasurer’s Report

- CCD is losing money on Monday and Saturday dances.
 - Losses estimated around $4,000 for the year base on the last six months.
 - Break-even attendance is ~63 people; current attendance often in the 30s–40s.
 - PigTown income is subsidizing regular dances.
 - Recommendation to assess sustainability annually rather than weekly.
-

4. Finance Committee Discussion

- Richard and Darlene joined the committee.
 - Committee is open to others.
 - No formal meetings held yet; communication via email.
 - Future tasks include:
 - Evaluating band/caller pay parity
 - Budget planning
 - Exploring new revenue sources
 - Formalizing committee charters
 - Note: Richard mentioned that Bloomington Contra recommended a sliding scale between $3 and $20 from dance entrance fee with the statement that $10 is the break even point. When they did this, they received more funds than expected.
-

5. Wyoming Fine Arts Center (WFAC) Report

- Heating issues discussed; potential solution includes installing individual heater valves.
 - Proposal to strengthen relationship with WFAC:
 - Tip jar or QR code for donations
 - Permanent plaque or recognition
 - Occasional stage presence by WFAC staff
 - Formation of a WFAC Committee (Charles & Philip to lead)
-

6. Scheduling Report

- Most bands/callers are in progress for early 2026.
 - Out-of-town bands booked: Holler Tones, Super Trad, Hot Coffee Breakdown.
 - The full schedule for MON/SAT 2026 is still in progress.
 - New callers: Jerome Grisanti, Michael Hentz.
 - DJ Contra inquiries sent for future events.
 - Frank and Liz unavailable to call; Nick Rockstroh pending.
-

7. New Year's Eve Dance Planning

- Proposal to host a dance on Dec 31, 2025.
 - Darlene volunteered to call; potluck and lights setup discussed.
 - Vote passed unanimously to proceed.
 - Dance to start at 8 PM; potluck at 6:30 PM.
 - Entry fee: $15
 - Band and caller to be paid Saturday rates ($200 and $50 respectively).
 - Bonnie to confirm hall availability and band.
 - Josh may set up lights if gendered calling is used.
-

8. Hospitality for Visiting Bands

- Toss the Possum (Dec 7) needs housing.
 - Volunteers identified: Cori, Sarah Hoffman, Peter.
 - Hospitality remains under scheduling duties.
-

9. Committee Structure Proposal

- Philip introduced a formal charter template for committees/work groups.
 - Purpose: clarify scope, deliverables, budget, and leadership.
 - Feedback:
 - Simplify language for accessibility
 - Create a half-sheet version or guided form
 - Clarify reporting structure (parent vs. subcommittees)
-

10. Announcement Etiquette

- Board members encouraged to model respectful behavior during announcements.

- Avoid side conversations; move business discussions to stairwell.
 - Promote positive community engagement during announcements.
-

11. PigTown Fling Volunteer Recruitment

- Scheduled for March 27–29, 2026
 - Volunteer coordination and scholarship policies discussed.
 - Valerie and Myra to manage registration and tracking.
-

12. Website Updates

- Meeting minutes and bylaws missing from new site.
 - Kurt and Cori working on updates.
-

13. Recognition of Past Members

- Proposal to discuss thank-yous for outgoing board members.
 - Bonnie and Charles already working on certificates and flowers.
-

Key Decisions

- 1. New Year's Eve Dance Approved
 - Date: December 31, 2025
 - Caller: Darlene
 - Potluck and lights included
 - Entry fee: $15
 - Band and caller paid Saturday rates
- 2. Finance Committee Expanded
 - Richard and Darlene added
 - Will address pay parity and budget strategy
- 3. Committee Charter Format Introduced
 - Will be refined for accessibility
 - Used to formalize work groups and responsibilities
- 4. Formation of WFAC Committee
 - Charles and Philip to lead
 - Explore donation and partnership strategies

 Key Action Items

Item	Responsible	Deadline
Confirm hall availability for NYE dance	Bonnie	By Nov 9
Find band for NYE dance	Bonnie	ASAP
Organize potluck for NYE	Darlene	TBD
Send out contact list	Myra	ASAP
Finalize committee charter template	Philip	Before Dec meeting
Update website with minutes/bylaws	Kurt/Cori	TBD
Explore donation options with WFAC	Charles & Philip	TBD
Recruit PigTown volunteers	Valerie	Ongoing
Clarify volunteer registration process	Myra & Valerie	TBD