7. Sponsored Dances and Donations Policy

The board discussed sponsorship of dances and associated ethical considerations.

Key Points

- Two types of sponsorship were identified:
 1. Unconditional sponsorship (e.g., sponsor pays admission so the dance is free).
 2. Conditional sponsorship (e.g., sponsor requests specific performers).
- Strong concern was expressed about avoiding quid-pro-quo arrangements or perceived purchase of programming control.
- Free-admission sponsorships were considered straightforward.
- Conditional sponsorships require additional oversight.

Decisions:

- Free-admission sponsorships may proceed without special approval.
- Conditional sponsorships must be reviewed and approved by the board on a case-by-case basis.

Action Items:

- Finance Committee to draft a formal sponsorship and donation policy for board review.

8. Transparency, Records, and Communications

- Meeting minutes are the official organizational record.
- Recording distribution was discouraged due to governance and liability concerns.
- Interest was expressed in improving transparency by:
 - Publishing board minutes on the website.
 - Clarifying how community members can observe meetings or request agenda items.

Action Items:

- Myra to coordinate with the website administrator to ensure board minutes are accessible online.
 - Develop guidance on public observation and agenda requests.

9. Scheduling Report and Issues

Substitutions and IOUs

- Several caller cancellations required last-minute substitutions.
- Repeated reliance on the same individuals was noted as a concern.
- Multiple IOUs are owed to bands whose performances were canceled or displaced.

Decisions:

- Substitutions should continue to be managed centrally by the schedulers.
- IOUs will be tracked and resolved by the scheduling team.

Action Items:

- Bonnie and Deven to:

- Create a short list of backup callers.
 - Track and address outstanding IOUs with bands.

10. Monday After PigTown Scheduling

- Ongoing ambiguity exists about whether the Monday after PigTown belongs to:
 - The regular scheduling rotation, or
 - The PigTown committee.
- A specific case involving a visiting caller highlighted risks of displacement of local callers.
- Strong emphasis was placed on honoring existing commitments and protecting local relationships.
- Options discussed included sharing the evening or formally reassigning ownership of the date starting in future years.

Decision:

- No immediate change will be made.

Action Items:

- Val and Audrey to draft a written proposal clarifying ownership and scheduling of the Monday after PigTown (beginning in 2027).
 - Proposal to be circulated for review prior to a board vote.
